MiraCosta College Adult High School Diploma Program

AHSDP Mission

MiraCosta College's Adult High School Diploma Program prepares adults for higher education and increased employability in a supportive, challenging, accessible environment that respects and honors diversity.

Our Students

Our Enrollment

Each year, AHSDP serves over 650 students. While the program serves the Oceanside and Carlsbad area, students come from over 15 local cities.

Class Size

Our personalized, face-to-face instruction gives students the chance to get to know and interact with the faculty.

Diversity

Gender

About half of the students who attend the AHSDP are women.

Ethnicity

The AHSDP has a diverse student body.

Age

Students attending the program range from 17 to over 70 years old.

Our Graduates

Students attend the AHSDP for many reasons, but the program awards over 100 high school diplomas each year.

Our Successes

One of the goals of the AHSDP is to help students transition to higher education after completion of the high school diploma. Over 40% of the AHSDP graduates enroll in credit courses at MiraCosta College.
