After performance opportunities, workshops and clinics for ensembles of all sizes and age ranges, the apex of the annual Oceanside Jazz Festival's band festival is the Saturday evening concert — each year with a different guest artist. This Saturday, American percussionist Lenny Castro takes the stage with the MiraCosta Jazz Collective and MOJO (aka the MiraCosta Orchestra Jazz Orchestra). A longtime freelancer in the studio recording industry, Castro has worked with pop and jazz icons from the Rolling Stones to Quincy Jones. CYNTHIA ZANONE
