DRAFT

MiraCosta College Awards and Timeline

The Academic Senate Faculty Awards Committee processes statewide and local awards to celebrate and honor the work of our faculty. This document provides information and timelines for the various awards that we process.

Fall Semester:

Statewide Exemplary Program Award

Application Deadline: Early November

The Board of Governors established the Exemplary Program Award in 1991 to recognize outstanding community college programs. The Award is sponsored annually by the Foundation for California Community Colleges. The statewide Academic Senate provides focused themes each year. They also provide exact deadline dates each year. This is a self-nomination award. To review their theme and deadline for the current school year, and to download related documents, visit their website HERE

Statewide Hayward Award for Excellence in Education

Application Deadline: Early December

The Statewide Academic Senate provides the Hayward Award for “Excellence in Education.” Sponsored annually by the Foundation for California Community Colleges, this award honors community college full-time and part-time faculty who demonstrate the highest level of commitment to their students, college, and profession. The statewide Academic Senate provides criteria that are used to evaluate applications. This is a self-nomination award. To access application documents and for the specific deadline of the current school year, visit their website HERE

Stanback-Stroud Diversity Award

Application Deadline: Early February

The Academic Senate provides the Stanback-Stroud Diversity Award to honor the cadre of committed faculty who consistently rise to meet the challenges our students face. The award is sponsored by the Foundation for California Community Colleges. It is the responsibility of California community college faculty to demonstrate the sustained attention and support necessary to fully engage and excite these students. This prestigious award acknowledges an individual or group that is exceptional in contributing to the advancement of intercultural harmony, equity, and campus diversity at their college. This is a self-nomination award. To access application documents and for the specific deadline of the current school year, visit their website HERE

Spring Semester:

MiraCosta Leon Baradat Award

Application Deadline: Mid March

This annual award honors outstanding MiraCosta faculty, one full time and one associate. These honorees have a passion for teaching, counseling or library work and a dedication to students. They additionally will have demonstrated excellence beyond the classroom or primary work site in fostering engagement and creating a positive and inclusive campus climate through institutional service. These recipients will be leaders who have contributed to the larger good of the MiraCosta College campus. The award may be received only once during the faculty member's lifetime at MiraCosta College. This is not a self-nomination award. To nominate a colleague and to learn more about the criteria and process, including access documents, visit the website HERE

Virtual International Exchange Award

Application Deadline: Mid April

This award recognizes the work of an outstanding MiraCosta faculty member who created the best Virtual International Exchange in each academic year. The International Education Advisory Committee will review the applications and select the winner based on the depth of the students' engagement, the quality, and the number of students the project reached. To learn more about Virtual International Exchanges, please visit the Canvas site HERE: <https://miracosta.instructure.com/courses/16666/pages/virtual-international-exchanges>

Associated Students Outstanding Faculty Awards * This award is not in the purview of the Academic Senate and is for informational purposes only*

Application Deadline: Students submit their nomination Mid Spring

The Associated Students Outstanding Faculty & Staff Award is an annual honor bestowed to the employees of MiraCosta College. Students are encouraged to nominate a member of the MiraCosta College faculty and staff for this prestigious award.

THE HAYWARD AWARD FOR "EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATION"

Sponsored by the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges and
The Foundation for California Community Colleges

Submission Requirements:

- Each local senate can nominate one full- and part- time faculty member; however there can only be one honoree from each college.
- All faculty, classroom and non-classroom, are eligible for consideration.
- Previous nominees who did not receive the award may be re-nominated.
- Four recipients (two full-time and two part-time faculty) will be chosen and honored at the Board of Governors meeting in March.
- Completed online applications must be received in the Academic Senate Office by 5:00 p.m. on December 10, 2021.

NOTE: A minimum of three nominations statewide must be received for the selection process to proceed.

Application Procedure and Checklist:

1. An online application form completed by either the nominating college or the candidate.

The candidate should explain their qualifications for consideration as a recipient of the Hayward Award for "Excellence in Education." Applications will be redacted for any reference to the nominee and the nominee's college and community prior to the selection committee's review.

2. Local academic senate letter of candidate support, two-page maximum, submitted along with the online application. Please explain the candidate's qualifications for consideration as a recipient of the Hayward Award for "Excellence in Education." Applications will be screened for direct or indirect reference to the nominee and the nominee's college and community.

3. Candidate's curriculum vitae, submitted with the online application form. CVs will be redacted for any reference to the nominee and the nominee's college and community prior to the selection committee's review. Please include the following in the vitae: Professional Experience including positions held, professional affiliations, campus activities, and educational background, as well as any awards and honors, publications and presentations, and community activities.

Nomination Guidelines:

Each college academic senate may forward to the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges the name of up to two nominees (one full- and one part-time) for the Hayward Award for "Excellence in Education." The criteria to be used in making the final selection include the following:

1. The candidate(s) should be committed to serving and empowering students from diverse backgrounds and experiences. Candidate's application and supporting letter from the local senate should reflect this commitment.
2. The candidate(s) should be committed to the fundamental principles of the California Community Colleges mission. There should be evidence of support for open access and for helping students succeed. The candidate's application should reflect a commitment to the college at which the candidate works, perhaps through suggestions of ways the candidate has helped to improve the educational environment.
3. The candidate(s) should be committed to serving the institution through participation in professional and/or student activities. There should be evidence of participation with the academic senate, department, or student groups.
4. The candidate(s) should be committed to education. There should be evidence that the candidate maintains currency in the discipline and communicates to students and colleagues an enthusiasm for the discipline and for education in general.
5. The candidate(s) should be committed to serving as a representative of the profession beyond the local institution through service in statewide and/or national activities. There should be evidence of activities that reveal a broader scope of interest, perhaps through publications, participation in community groups, or participation in state or national organizations.

Subject: Hayward Award for "Excellence in Education"

The Academic Senate is pleased to announce the call for nominations for the Hayward Award for "Excellence in Education." Sponsored annually by the Foundation for California Community Colleges, this award honors community college full-time and part-time faculty who demonstrate the highest level of commitment to their students, college, and profession. Award recipients, nominated by their college academic senate and selected by representatives of the Academic Senate must have a record of outstanding performance of professional activities, as well as a record of active participation on campus.

Basic Information

- Each local senate can nominate one full- and part- time faculty member; however there can only be one honoree from each college.
- All faculty, classroom and non-classroom, are eligible for consideration.
- Previous nominees who did not receive the award may be re-nominated.
- Four recipients (two full-time and two part-time faculty) will be chosen and honored at the Board of Governors meeting in March.
- Completed online applications must be received in the Academic Senate Office by 5:00 p.m. on December 10, 2021.

The selection process will be completed by February 2022. Winners will be honored at the March 2022 Board of Governors meeting. Please note, that the recipients of this award will be asked to submit a current photo. Although only four faculty recipients will be honored by the Board of Governors, we hope each college will honor its individual nominee.

Nomination Guidelines

Each college academic senate may forward to the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges the name of up to two nominees (one full- and one part-time) for the Hayward Award for "Excellence in Education." The criteria to be used in making the final selection include the following:

1. The candidate(s) should be committed to serving and empowering students from diverse backgrounds and experiences. The candidate's application and supporting letter from the local senate should reflect this commitment.
2. The candidate(s) should be committed to the fundamental principles of the California Community Colleges mission. There should be evidence of support for open access and for helping students succeed. The candidate's application should reflect a commitment to the college at which the candidate works, perhaps through suggestions of ways the candidate has helped to improve the educational environment.
3. The candidate(s) should be committed to serving the institution through participation in professional and/or student activities. There should be evidence of participation with the academic senate, department, or student groups.
4. The candidate(s) should be committed to education. There should be evidence that the candidate maintains currency in the discipline and communicates to students and colleagues an enthusiasm for the discipline and for education in general.

5. The candidate(s) should be committed to serving as a representative of the profession beyond the local institution through service in statewide and/or national activities. There should be evidence of activities that reveal a broader scope of interest, perhaps through publications, participation in community groups, or participation in state or national organizations.

Application Procedure and Checklist:

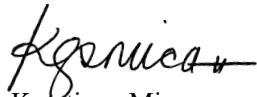

1. An online application form completed by either the nominating college or the candidate.

The candidate should explain their qualifications for consideration as a recipient of the Hayward Award for "Excellence in Education." Applications will be redacted for any reference to the nominee and the nominee's college and community prior to the selection committee's review.

2. Local academic senate letter of candidate support, two-page maximum, submitted along with the online application. Please explain the candidate's qualifications for consideration as a recipient of the Hayward Award for "Excellence in Education."
