Background: About the ACCJC Annual Report

In accordance with federal regulations and the Commission Policy on Monitoring Institutional Performance, ACCJC applies a set of annual monitoring and evaluation approaches to assess member institutions' strengths, stability, and ongoing alignment with the Standards during the course of the accreditation review cycle. The Annual Report (AR) is one of the tools used for this process. Using institutions' self-reported data, the ACCJC Annual Report collects headcount information to monitor institutional growth (including growth in distance and correspondence education) and institution-set standards for key indicators of student achievement, licensure exam pass rates, and job placement rates.

To assist you as your institution prepares its responses, you can find additional information, data definitions, and a printable version of the 2025 survey questions at <https://accjc.org/wp-content/uploads/Annual-Report-Instructions-and-Questions-1.pdf>.

Technical Notes for the 2025 Annual Report Survey

The 2025 Annual Report collects data for the three-year period that includes 2021-2022, 2022-2023, and 2023-2024.

Additional information and data definitions are provided in the instruction text where relevant.

All questions with an * are required.

If a question is not applicable, please enter n/a.

If you are copying and pasting figures from a Word or PDF document, please ensure your numbers don't have extra (trailing) spaces in the end.

Answers are saved automatically, and can be accessed and revised as many times as needed prior to submission.

Submitting the 2025 Annual Report Survey

To submit a final copy, follow the instructions in the Final Step page of the online survey. When the survey has been submitted, the College ALO and the individual completing the survey (if different) will receive email confirmation of submission and a copy of the survey responses. ACCJC will forward a final PDF copy of the Annual Report to the ALO and CEO for final review (and adjustment, if needed). If no corrections or adjustments are needed, the PDF copy will stand as the final, certified copy of the Annual Report.

This is the Section Navigator which will allow you to jump to any sections of the survey. You can complete the sections in any order and if you need to return to the main page, please use the back button.

To begin or return to a section, please click the Answer button.

The Next button at the bottom of this page will bring you to the final page of the survey. You will not be able to proceed until all sections of the survey have been completed.

If you can't complete a section in one sitting, click Back to navigate back to the section navigator to complete a different section.

5. Total unduplicated headcount enrollment for last three years:

For the purposes of this report, unduplicated headcount is defined as the total number of students (credit and non-credit) enrolled at the end of the general enrollment period (also referred to as first census date). The academic year should include leading summer, fall, winter, and spring terms. If your institution calculates the academic year differently for the purposes of monitoring annual enrollment, you may respond using your local calculation and describe your method in Question 20.

ACCJC does not determine what constitutes a program for colleges. For the purposes of this report, you may define degree-applicable credit programs as appropriate for the context of your institution's unique mission.

7. Do you offer Distance Education?

Distance education is defined as education that uses technology to deliver instruction to students who are separated from the instructor(s) and to support regular and substantive interaction between the students and the instructor, either synchronously or asynchronously. For the purposes of this report, include only those courses that are 100% online in your calculation of unduplicated headcount enrollment for distance education. Do not include hybrid courses or courses in which all the class hours are face to face, but some material is posted online.

8. Do you offer Correspondence Education?

Correspondence education is defined as education in which (1) the institution provides instructional materials (and examinations on these materials), by mail or electronic transmission (including transmission via learning management system) to students who are separated from the instructor; and where (2) interaction between the instructor(s) and the student is limited, is not regular and substantive, and is primarily initiated by the student. Online courses or online portions of courses which primarily involve "paperwork" (e.g., reading textbook and other materials posted by the instructor, taking examinations, and submitting assignments) will fall within the definition of correspondence education rather than distance education. If the online portion of a class meets the definition of correspondence education, then even if the class also meets on site, it will be considered a correspondence education course for Title IV qualification purposes. Correspondence education is not considered distance education within the U.S. Department of Education definition (see question 7, above).

Reflecting on your score above, describe how your college is supporting continual improvement and innovation in alignment with the ACCJC Standards and guidelines for data transparency on your institution’s public website? (100 words)

Utilizing the Rubric for Effective Institutional Outcome Transparency, members of the MiraCosta College Council found that the College provided adequate student achievement data on the College website; however, the data was not easy to find nor was any context or story-telling provided with the data presented. The College Council discussed several ways to improve the website in order to provide accurate information about our students and highlight student achievement outcomes. The College will research model websites and present options for presenting student achievement data on the website by the end of Summer 2025.

12. Course Completion Rates

For the purposes of this report, the successful course completion rate is calculated as the number of student completions with a grade of C or better divided by the number of students enrolled in the course. Yes

Report only those programs for which a license or other similar examination is required before students can qualify for employment in their chosen field of study, and where there were at least 10 students who completed the program in the designated year.

Our institution has programs that meet these conditions.

19. Does your college offer Career and Technical Education Programs?

Yes

For the purposes of the Annual Report, Job Placement Rate is defined as the percentage of students who are employed in the year following completion of a CTE (career-technical education) certificate or degree program. (This means that the denominator for the 2022-2023 job placement rate will be the number of students who completed the program in 2021-2022.) Report only those programs with a minimum of 10 students in the completion year. For example, if a program had 9 students complete in 2021-2022, you do not need to report a job placement rate for 2022-2023. Report only those programs for which reliable data are available. If your institution has defined its job placement rate differently than what is described above, you may complete this question using your local definition provided that you describe this definition in Question 20.

Our institution has programs that meet these conditions.

20. Please use this text box to provide any comments or context regarding the data submitted in this report (optional, no word limit).

NOTE: The degree attainment rate for our bachelor's degree program in Biomanufacturing dipped slightly below our institution-set standard in this year's report. After reviewing the data, the College believes that this was an anomalous outcome due to the Covid pandemic. This particular cohort began in Fall 2021—indeed, it had the highest number of withdrawals from the program before students enrolled in the first term. Leading indicators from subsequent cohorts are on par with prior highly successful cohorts which portend a resumption of the high degree attainment rates. For example, the fall-to-fall persistence rates for the next two cohorts (Fall 2022 and Fall 2023) were 92%, which is 8 points higher than the fall-to-fall persistence rates of the Fall 2021 cohort.

In this Annual Report, ACCJC seeks to gain additional insights from our member institutions. Regarding student achievement data, these questions seek to learn more about how colleges are advancing student achievement, challenges faced, and support needed.

21. Reflecting on your Institution's student achievement(s), what efforts/initiatives/competencies have you found to be fundamental in supporting the recent successes you've observed/reported? Please describe any innovations and improvements along with a brief narrative of how it was achieved. (max 200 words)

Reflecting on our institution's recent student achievements, the implementation of the Guided Pathways reform initiative has been fundamental. This initiative encompasses three key areas of innovation:

1. Customer Relationship Management System: Utilizing Salesforce (TargetX), we maintain holistic information about our students, track their participation in college services/activities, and centralize targeted communications with students.
2. Data Systems and Research Capacity: Investments in these areas (including building a data warehouse and Tableau data visualizations) enable us to regularly review and discuss timely, disaggregated information, ensuring informed decision-making.
3. Equitable Innovations: By focusing on our diverse student population, we have developed cross-functional Academic and Career Pathway Student Success Teams that provide wraparound support/services for our most disproportionately impacted students.

These efforts have collectively fostered a supportive and responsive educational environment, driving the improvements in student success that we observe today.

22. What professional development can the Commission coordinate to support your Institution in achieving its student success goals within the next three-year cycle? (max 200 words)

To support our College in achieving its student success goals within the next three-year cycle, it would be helpful for ACCJC to continue highlighting best practices related to the Commission's accreditation standards, particularly in the areas of student achievement and outcomes. For example, providing exemplars of colleges and universities that do an excellent job presenting their student achievement data to the public. Additionally, we seek ongoing training and best practices for writing midterm reports and self-study reports. These professional development opportunities will ensure our institution remains aligned with accreditation standards and continues to enhance student success.
