

The superintendent/president shall establish organizational charts that delineate the lines of responsibility and fix the general duties of employees within the district.

See Administrative Procedure 3100.