

The College Council oversees the self-evaluation and accreditation process.

The process, timeline, and other materials related to the process will be drafted by the accreditation liaison officer for review by the College Council and recommendation to the superintendent/president.