

Philosophy

College news media are any news/feature publications issued under the name of the college and produced by students as an integral part of instruction in the Student Activities Office. It may include, but is not limited to, student newspaper reporting, broadcast-news journalism, and internet-news journalism. The term "editorial" refers to all content other than advertising.

College news media, as laboratory publications of the Student Activities Office, shall provide vehicles to train students for careers in mass communication. College news media shall also serve the entire college community by reporting the news, including college events and activities, providing a forum for comment and criticism, and encouraging free expression as guaranteed in the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

College-news media are valuable aids in establishing and maintaining an atmosphere of free and responsible discussion. College-news media shall exercise editorial freedom in order to maintain their integrity as vehicles for free inquiry and free expression in the college community.

Each college newspaper or other news medium is published as a learning experience offered under the Student Activities Office. The editorial and advertising materials published in each news medium, including any opinions expressed, are the responsibility of the student staff. An editorial board should be formed for the news media involved. Under appropriate state and federal court decisions, these materials are free from prior restraint by virtue of the First Amendment to the United States Constitution. These procedures are adopted so as to encourage a responsible exercise of such freedom.

Journalism Grievance Procedures

- A. Definition of a Grievance: A grievance is a complaint that alleges facts that, if true, would demonstrate a violation of the grievant's right to free inquiry, free speech, or fair treatment; contains allegations that appear to be substantially credible; and is not frivolous.
- B. Informal Grievance Proceedings: Describe a procedure that includes a written complaint to those with direct responsibility for the program and their responsibilities to respond in a timely manner.

- C. Formal Grievance Proceedings: More formal grievance procedures may include a grievance hearing committee and appeal to the Vice President, Student Services, or designee in a timely fashion. The procedures should include how grievance hearings should be conducted, access to and maintenance of related records, and the responsibility of the authorities to respond to the grievance in a timely fashion.
