

The vice president of business and administrative services and the director of human resources are delegated responsibility from the superintendent/ president to recommend employment, develop job responsibilities, and perform other personnel actions provided that all federal and state law and regulations, board policies, and administrative procedures are followed.