

IN ALL EMERGENCIES

Emergency Response

When a student:

- Needs emergency safety-related support
- Is a recent victim of an attack
- Appears to pose imminent danger to safety of self or others

If immediate threat exists

Campus Police, 760-795-6640 or x6911

Open 24 hours / 7 days per week

An officer will:

- Meet the student involved at the scene.
- Assess the student's and campus safety.
- Respond based on the situation, including medical help and/or requiring an involuntary evaluation under Section 5150 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, if needed.

FOR NON-EMERGENCY CONCERNS

Mental Health Consultation

When a student exhibits:

- Intense emotional distress
- Severe anxiety or depression
- Suicidal thoughts with no active plan to harm themselves

If no immediate threat exists

Submit a CARE Referral Form

Visit: Miracosta.edu/StudentAffairs
Select: "CARE/Concern for an individual" as Nature of Report

The Student Affairs team will:

- Connect students with available resources and support.

Behavior Concern

When student behavior is:

- Having a negative impact on the teaching or learning environment
- Potentially violating the Standards of Student Conduct

If no immediate threat exists

Submit a CARE Referral Form

Visit: Miracosta.edu/StudentAffairs
Select: "Student Conduct" or "Disruption" as Nature of Report

The Student Affairs team will:

- Assess the needs of students, faculty, and staff involved and provide resources and support.
- If needed, initiate the student conduct process focused on education and safety.
- The Student Conduct team will address the issue.

Title IX

If a student reports experiencing:

- Discrimination on the basis of sex or gender, sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking

If no immediate threat exists

Submit a CARE Referral Form

Visit: Miracosta.edu/StudentAffairs
Select: "Sexual Misconduct/Title IX" as Nature of Report

The Title IX team will:

- The Title IX team will assess the needs of the students, faculty, and staff involved and provide resources and support.
- The Title IX team will address the referral and provide resources and support.

Further Consultation

- When you need a consultation for how to proceed

If no immediate threat exists

Contact:

- Your dean, department chair, or immediate supervisor
- Office of Student Affairs
- Campus Police

The Student Affairs team or supervisors should be notified, and the situation will be:

- Assessed and either addressed directly or by appropriate referral.
